

Canada Day Rocks

Collect some rocks at the beach or around your yard, wash them off and dry them. Use red and white paint to decorate the rocks with the Canada flag or other symbols. We have included some templates that you can trace on the rock with a marker, then color them in.

You can put the date on the rock or your name or family name - use your imagination. use card stock to print the templates to make it easier to trace on the rocks.

