NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Take 2
PAUL POWER

This week it's a book: "Yours Cruelly, Elvira"- by Cassandra Peterson. It's the memoir of her life thus far, and her journey to becoming the Mistress of the Dark. It's also a story about female empowerment, heartbreak, triumphs and tragedies-detailed here with sincerity, love and of course being Elvira there's lots of humour, and some real eye-openers that many, until now, didn't know about. When she was only 18 months old Cassandra made her way to a kitchen stove where eggs were boiling, climbed up on a chair to hear the boiling pot sound and she lost her balance, grabbing the cast iron pot of boiling water that fell and gave her third-degree burns over one-third of her body. The prognosis was not good at first but Cassandra survived, and with skin grafts she began the life-long recovery process. Other children and some cruel adults teased and bullied her for many years. Cassandra said all that made her stronger, and she became a tough as nails and determined individual that guided her personal and career path.

This is just a short snapshot of a lot of information, and I don't want to give away too much but there are big revelations, such as Cassandra saying that Wilt Chamberlain raped her, meeting Elvis and him telling her that Vegas was not a good place for her to be as it sucks one's soul out, and that later in life after a failed marriage, and some relationships Cassandra found her true self as a lesbian; she's been with the same soul-mate for over 20 years now. Dumb people did slag Elvira off as low-brow and crass, but Elvira is a character created by one of the most intelligent, vivacious, humorous, insightful and likable people that I've ever read about; Cassandra Peterson's words are touching and empowering, with lots of giggles, guffaws and corny jokes thrown in for good measure.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

If you're like me, you are practicing your slalom driving and dodging the many pot holes even on the Bypass. This sign caught my attention and I thought I'd share it with you for a smile.

TAKING FIRST PRIZE

Cape Breton is known for its musical talent and many festivals and concerts abound in the Summer. Celtic Colours hosts artists from all over the world every Fall for 8 days.

This story is about a much smaller music festival in Iona. It is held each year to help foster the growth of new musical talent.

My uncle Dave and his friends had a quartet that they called "The Derry Aires" and sang celtic songs. I never thought of the name or its French connotations back then.

They all piled in the car on a Sunday afternoon and headed for Iona, well fortified with Capt. Morgan to help lubricate their throats.

When they arrived home that night, they had a huge trophy sitting in the back seat. They told everybody that they had taken the first prize trophy. Congratulations were handed out all around.

It was only a few years later that I learned they never won anything. I asked him about it and he said, "Well the trophy was just sitting there on the table, so we took it!" Ask a silly question, get a silly answer.

TAX TIPS FOR SENIORS

Tax tips for Canadians over 65 - If you're in your golden years or taking care of a family member who is, take a minute to review what credits and deductions you could both be eligible for.

Make sure you file a tax return:

Always file, because you could be entitled to other credits, deductions and benefits that get triggered by your tax return such as GST/HST credits. If you're receiving Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) through Old Age Security, make sure to file on time to ensure their benefits continue uninterrupted.

INCOME SPLIT AND SAVE - You're allowed to split up to half of your eligible pension income with a spouse or common-law partner. Income splitting allows some seniors to enjoy a significant tax reduction. In the situation where the lower-income spouse has very little income, the tax savings are substantial. If your spouse is unable to completely offset his or her age amount, pension income and disability amount against tax payable, he or she may transfer the unused portion to your return.

SPLIT YOUR CPP AND SAVE - You may be able to split part of your CPP retirement benefits with your spouse depending on how long you lived together when you were contributing to the plan. This is an advantage if one senior is in a higher tax bracket than the other. However, to do so, you must apply to Human Resources & Social Development Canada using Form ISP-1002. It cannot be done at the time of tax preparation.

MEDICAL EXPENSES CAN ADD UP - A portion of most medical expenses can be claimed! Everything from medication to nursing home fees, and even medical insurance for a trip or wintering in another country is considered eligible. Medical expenses are reduced by a percentage of your income, so it is normally more beneficial for the lower income spouse to claim them. And if you had to travel to obtain medical treatment that was not available where you live, you may be able to claim the cost of transportation, meals and accommodation.

TAKING CARE OF A SENIOR HAS ITS TAX BENEFITS - If you are over 65 and dependent on your children or other family members because of an impairment in physical or medical functions, they may be able to claim the Canada Caregiver Tax Credit. To qualify for the tax credit, your earnings need to be less than $23,906 in 2019 and a doctor needs to supply a note explaining the nature and duration of the impairment. If you are eligible for the disability tax credit, they may also be able to claim any portion that you do not need to reduce your taxes to zero.

HEAR NO EVIL

It was a typical noisy dinner at my parents' home, and Dad was having trouble following the conversations.

He kept jumping in with off-topic comments and asking for things to be repeated. I finally told him he needed to get a hearing aid.

Looking at me as if I were crazy, he said, "What would I do with a hand grenade?"
