NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

BINGO every Friday night 7:00 pm at the Parish Hall, Main Street, Sydney Mines.

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Anyone living long in Sydney will recall fondly the many adventures of a character named "Hughie R."

He worked for the city in many capacities. On one occasion a horse dropped dead on the Esplanade. Hughie called the police station to get the horse towed to Pitt Street because he couldn't spell "Esplanade."

Another time a mule dropped dead at the old coal chutes where Centre 200 stands today. The coal depot manager called to have it towed away as it was blocking the roadway. Hughie R. finally shows up and the manager gave him a hard time for the delay.

A few minutes went by and Hughie pops back in and advises the manager that services for the horse will be held at 6 pm. The manager says, "What do I care?" Hughie looks him straight in the eye and says, "It's customary to notify the next of kin!"

Once when Hughie was appointed special constable for the night shift, there were two drunks locked up in the holding cells. The chief asked Hughie what they were in for and Hughie replies "arson". The chief said, "I didn't think there were any fires last night." Hughie R. replies, "No chief, they were arson around on Charlotte Street."

Take 2
PAUL POWER

I'm going to start this week's column off by saying that during the 1980's I was at my peak of being a true Metalhead, culminating in attending 2 concerts in Sydney; first Metallica then Alice Cooper-2 bands I adored and still do. I did listen to a lot of other genres, especially having to do so as being a mobile DJ for 25 years but that Heavy Metal poisoning never left my bloodstream. I will also say that I like Ronnie James Dio's Black Sabbath way more than Ozzy Osbourne's Black Sabbath, but when Ozzy released his fourth solo album in 1986 ('Ultimate Sin') I was hooked-getting everything he released from then on. This book was released in October of last year; Ozzy passed away in July so he never lived to see it released-but he did know and wrote that his time was coming soon. It's incredible the amount of surgeries (pins, plates and more) and treatments he endured in his later years - but none were successful. The whole book is a great read and it did tell me things I never knew about him; his favourite song was 'Your Song' by Elton John. He also loved the music of Peter Gabriel and Phil Collins and considered 'You Really Got Me' by The Kinks as the first 'heavy' song he heard. He also wrote that one night long into their career Sabbath had booked Van Halen as the opening act and when Sabbath saw that band onstage they went back to their dressing rooms and realized that they were done. Another tidbit is that it was Leslie West of the band Mountain who introduced them to cocaine when on tour in the states in 1971. To sum up, this book gives us an even more humanistic view inside the life and times of this legendary singer.

Two seniors were discussing making their wills. The husband says to his wife, "I would never want to live in a vegetative state dependent upon some machine to keep me alive".

"If that ever happens, please pull the plug." His wife gets up and says, "OK, dear, no problem" then she gets up and unplugs the television set.

WEEKLY SMILE

The Early Bird Gets The Worm

I found out on one of my jogs around Ashby that a new housing group was being built on Cartier Street. There was going to be 10 new houses built.

At that time most homes had white picket fences around them. I went to the Credit Union and took out $200 of my savings which was a lot in the early 60s.

I then went down to Chappells and Stephens Building Supplies and bought up all the pickets they had. I knew that they didn't make pickets in the Summer because the staff were on rotating vacation and pickets were a time consuming task so they only made them in the Winter when things were slow.

My original idea was to go to those new houses when they were ready to have fencing and sell the pickets at a profit. One day a man in a big truck knocked on our door and asked my mother if she knew who had all the pickets.

She said, "Talk to Mister Rockerfeller over there." pointing to me. The man said he needed the pickets to build the fences and would I sell them to him. I asked him how much he would pay me and I almost fell off the chair when he said a price that was double what I paid for them and I didn't have to go door to door myself.

I pocketed the money and went down to the Credit Union and deposited it in my car account.

- TAX TIPS 2026 -

TAX TIPS - NEWCOMERS TO CANADA

Many newcomers qualify for benefit and credit payments based on their income and family situation. You could qualify to get these payments as soon as you arrive in Canada, even before you file your income tax and benefit return for the first time.

To keep getting these payments, you must file a tax return every year, even if you had little or no income. As a newcomer to Canada, you are required to file your tax return for the year you become a resident for tax purposes. For example:

If you arrived in 2025, you must file your 2025 tax return by April 30, 2026.

If you arrived in 2026, you must file your 2026 tax return by April 30, 2027.

WHY YOU SHOULD FILE A TAX RETURN - You need to file a tax return every year to: Get a refund (if owed), Keep getting benefits and credits, such as: Canada Groceries and Essentials Benefit (formerly the GST/HST credit): A payment every three months, which may include provincial or territorial program amounts, to help with the tax you pay on goods and services. Canada child benefit: A payment every month, which may include provincial or territorial amounts, to help with the cost of raising children.

PAY ANY TAX YOU OWE - In most cases, the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) automatically considers you for benefit and credit payments when you file your tax return. But, in certain cases involving the Canada child benefit, you may need to complete additional forms as part of the application process. For more information, review the eligibility requirements for the Canada child benefit.

DEADLINE TO FILE - The due date is April 30, 2026. Make sure to file your tax return and pay any amounts you owe on time!

IF YOU'RE SELF-EMPLOYED - If you or your spouse or common-law partner were self-employed in 2025, you have until June 15, 2026, to file.

WHAT YOU NEED TO FILE - Social Insurance Number. If you do not have one yet, you can apply for a Social Insurance Number from Service Canada.

INCOME INFORMATION - You will receive tax slips (such as a T4, T4A, T5, or T5007), if, for example, you worked in Canada or earned investment income during the year.

These slips are normally provided by your employer or financial institution by the end of February.

THIS WEEK'S FUNNY SIGN

Fresh Fried Sweatpants

This story ocured in the Gillis Lake area of Cape Breton many years ago but I still fondly recall the event.

At that time I was in the Big Brothers organization and teamed up with a young man of many talents but taking direction was not top on his list.

We were fishing and I was in my boat 100 feet from shore using my fly rod while young Paddy was using my hip rubber boots and spinning rod. I called in to warn him not to go to the right as there was a drop off there an he would go over his boots.

Naturally, he tried to prove me wrong, he walked over and went over his boots and got soaked. He called to me and said he was going to the bungalow to change and dry his new sweatpants I returned to the bungalow and Paddy was watching TV. I walked into the kitchen and said, "What's that smell?"

Paddy jumped up from the couch and opened the microwave only to discover his new nylon sweatpants were completely ruined. All summer when his mother would ask where his new sweatpants were, he would say he left them up my house. Paddy now lives in Alberta and we still laugh over the fresh fried sweatpants story.
