NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

We've got your back!

Strong Chiropractic Inc.

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Take 2

PAUL POWER

Every summer I promote this album/CD because it's the best of it's kind; 'Atlantic Standards-Kitchen Party' is a collection of Atlantic artists doing great Celtic songs. There are 4 best times of the year for a kitchen party-spring, summer, fall and winter! You might ask what's the recipe for a great kitchen party? Good friends, tasty nibbles, lots of 'refreshments' and great music! This album starts off with The Rankin's 'Christy Campbell Medley', then kicks into high gear with Great Big Sea's wild 'Mari-Mac'. I've played this one at dances and the result is always flying feet around the dancefloor. If that wasn't enough, 'Whole On It' by New Glasgow's Fleur Mainville is a pleasant surprise for sure. That romping, stomping party vibe is the theme here with songs like 'Colleen' by Rawlins Cross, Shanneyganock's 'Courtin' In The Kitchen' and 'Donald MacGillivary' by The Navigators-your feet will be begging for a break! The fiddle is an integral part of most kitchen parties, and it's well represented here in instrumentals from Samantha Robichaud, Gillian Boucher, Natalie MacMaster and Chrissy Crowley. When it's time for the fiddlers to take a break, a cappella numbers fill in beautifully; 2 of the best ever written are here; the Barra MacNeils 'Coaltown Road' is a personal favourite of mine. I remember being at an outdoor concert on Pitt Street in Sydney Mines one evening and when the Barra's broke into this number it was a goosebump moment, with the old pit site across the road from the ballfield. Many people were touched by that same sentiment. Stan Roger's signature song 'Barrett's Privateers' is here too, performed by The Irish Descendants, and it comes pretty darn close to being as good as Stan's iconic version. This is a great collection made for a party.

DOG DAY AFTERNOON

We lived on Ashby Road for a time and this is where this story takes place. Outside next to the sidewalk in front of our place was a patch of grass running alongside the property line.

It was just wide enough that my father could use it as a horseshoe pit. Each night after supper, the shoes would come out and neighbours would wander by to play a friendy games of horseshoes.

My job was to keep the grass cut short and rake the sand in the pits each night before the games started. There was a small yappy dog living across the street and as soon as he was let out, he made beeline for the grass and crapped all over the horseshoe pit.

I was getting a little tired of cleaning up every day. I had a bag of the dung by the step and my father said he would handle the dog. When the neighbour let the dog out he ran right for the grass and my father squirted him with the hose. This enraged the neighbour lady and criticized him for scaring her dog.

My father, never much the diplomat, said he was curing the dog from crapping on the grass. The neighbour replied that it was not her dog doing this.

My father then picked up the bag of doo doo and threw it across the street and it bounced and hit the door.

The police were called and when they showed up I thought he was going to get arrested. He explained the problem and the police officer listened intently.

He then went next door to talk to the lady and her dog. He asked her if she used a leash when she let the dog out and she replied "No". He then issued her a ticket for having a dog roaming at large without a leash. That cured the problem for good.

I remember my father's comment, "She's crazier than a bag of hammers."
