The Road
To Hell

To liven up our otherwise boring Sundays, we decided at the 10:00 am Sunday mass to wire a huge balloon filled with water and sawdust to the tailpipe of a car in the parking lot.

The car belonged to the head
of the Ladies Auxiliary and Father
MacIssac
stopped
to bid her
a good day and chat.

Her husband started the car
and the balloon
exploded with a spectacular
pop and water and sawdust
covered everyone within 15 feet. I still rank this in my top 5 all time stunts.

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces
a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

TITLE Take 2

PAUL POWER

I make it a point to read literary classics in their original form such as "Frankenstein" and "War of the Worlds" just to see the differences in the original books and the movies that were subsequently made. In the case of George Orwell's novel "1984", which was published in 1949, the book tells the tale of a dystopian future where the government, lead by Big Brother, has the population under complete control by coercion, torture, execution and mind control. The world is in a state of perpetual war and in Oceania (the Americas, Atlantic Islands, British Isles, Australasia, and Southern Africa) state workers constantly rewrite the past. "2+2=5", "War is peace," "Freedom is slavery," and "Ignorance is strength." Children are encouraged to spy and rat on their parents for any "thoughtcrime", relationships are frowned upon unless they serve Big Brother's aims; the food is terrible, alcohol is mostly a cheap and almost toxic form of Gin, necessities such as razor blades and soap are rationed, if available at all; existence is merely to serve the state. Daily the government holds indoctrination sessions where the people are forced to cheer and admire the actions of Big Brother and kids are brought to public executions of the prisoners of war or traitors to the government. While reading the book I lost track of how many times I thought "WTF!" as what I was reading read like the play book for our federal government, and that is no understatement. If you question that just read the book. Then I watched the best movie version that was released in, ironically, 1984 and starred John Hurd and Richard Burton in his final acting role, as he passed away 2 months before the film's release. The movie is gray, dismal and depressing-just like the book, but both are a great wake up call to those who are not sheeple.

The Free Motorhome Contest

Just recently I observed an amusing incident with the Tim Hortons “Roll Up The Rim To Win” contest.

The couple ahead of me ordered their coffees and the man proceeded to roll up the rim. He suddenly started to whoop and holler and turned to his wife and said, “I won a free motor home!!”

The wife took the cup from him and looked and then stated, “You idiot, its says “win a bagel!”

- TAX TIPS 2026 -

ANY MILESTONE EVENTS THIS PAST YEAR?

YOU STARTED YOUR FIRST JOB. - The switch up from student to fully-fledged employed adult can be a big one. You might have been surprised to see how much tax came out of your first paycheque, but there's a chance you have a tax credit waiting to be claimed. If you couldn't claim all of your tuition and education credits while you were in school, and didn't transfer all of them to someone else, they would have carried forward when you filed your next return. That means they could be used this year to lower your overall tax bill.

YOU GOT MARRIED - Congrats! While you're enjoying heart-warming wedded bliss, take a moment to loop in the CRA of your new marital status with an RC65 Form – Change of marital status. Here's some more good stuff to know: Though you might do everything together, taxes won't be one of them. Spouses still file their own returns at tax time, but you'll include your partner's SIN and net income on the first page. You won't end up paying more taxes, but benefits like the GST/HST and Canada Child Benefit (CCB) can be affected by your new household income.

YOU BOUGHT YOUR FIRST PLACE - No more rent payments for you! If you're a first-time homebuyer you're eligible for the Homebuyers' amount. This credit has increased from $5,000 to $10,000, which works out to $1,500 in tax savings.

Here's a few more things to know:

If you bought your place with your better half, the credit can be split between you if you're both first-time buyers.

You don't need a specific receipt to make this claim – you'll just need to have the paperwork that proves you bought a house in the past year if the CRA asks.

If you borrowed from your RRSP for your down payment, you have two years before the CRA will start asking you to repay it.

YOU'VE GOT A LITTLE ONE ON THE WAY - Hello, baby! The first few weeks with a new addition can be a bit hectic, you may have forgotten you registered your child at the time of birth. Here's what else you should know:

You might start receiving Canada Child Benefit (CCB) payments: This monthly payment is determined by household income, and is meant to help with the cost of raising a child. You've taken maternity or parental leave: New parents that will receive Employment Insurance payments should remember that this income is taxable, so can mean a tax bill at the end of the year depending on what other income was earned during the rest of the year.

Angela's St. Patrick's Day Dinner Party

Hey, if you're looking for somewhere to have a beautiful three course home cooked meal, and enjoy an amazing line up of entertainment, look no further.

The Little Bras D'or Pensioners Hall, Saturday March 14th from 5:00 pm to 9:00 pm. The bar will be open at 5:00 pm for socializing an hour before dinner, which will be shortly after 6:00 pm. Dinner will begin with a delicious Spinach Salad with maple dressing loaded with almonds, cashews, cranberries, apples, oranges, pears, cheese, onion and mushrooms and Italian bread and butter.

The second course will be Homemade BBQ Chicken Dinner with baked potato, and fresh veggies, and to complete the meal will be a delicious cinnamon swirl cake with cream cheese glaze and real whipped cream, with gluten free and vegetarian options available, but must be reserved in advance, no additional charge.

No meal is complete without some amazing entertainment. Ward Glogowski, Tim Glogowski, and Roy Dawson will be playing the oldies, tunes everyone grew up on, three amazing musicians on Mandolin, Bass, Acoustic, Harmonica and vocals.

Now, when is the last time your Chef, who prepared your meal and served you, sang for you? Angela has combined her passions for cooking, music and community, into events such as this one. Angela feels she has "the magic recipe" in bringing people together, while supporting local venues, and musicians; as she feels the Island is just "one great big pot of talent" which must be shared!!

following Dinner, Anela Ianneti, vocalist will take the stage with Anurag Ware, multi instrumentalist, Karmie Steele acoustic/vocals, Evan MacDonald lead guitar/vocals and you never know who else might jump in, such as Evan Milligan, Red Mike MacDonald, or Lachlan Finney, always a surprise! No evening is complete without a bit of jazz, and there is no better man than

J i m m y
D i F i o r i e,
b e t t e r
known as Jimmy D. to get you on the dance floor.

Angela has three albums released, performed and recorded in Nova Scotia, and Nashville, since she began her dream of music five years ago at age sixty, and they include her original and cover songs, all performed with well known Cape Breton Musicians, such as Ross Billard, Chris Iannetti, Peter Janes, Chris Pottie, Anthony Rissesco, Ryan Roberts, Todd Ingram; Jake Crayton, Nashville.

In addition to writing, cooking, and singing, Angela auditioned at the Boardmore Playhouse thought she should take a shot at acting, another thing on her bucket list, in the musical production of the Addams Family; so yes, none other than the former Granny Addams will be your Hostess for this lovely Saint Patrick's Day Dinner Party. Angela believes that dreams start at any age, and what better way to live them, than sharing them with music, food and Community !!

So, come out, enjoy an evening at a beautiful local facility, the Little Bras D'or Pensioners Hall, 66 Main Street, Little Bras D'or.

Please keep an eye open for other events at The Little Bras D'or Pensioners Hall as this year is their 50th Anniversary Year, and they are planning lots of activities, something for everyone, every age !!

Thank you to the Membership of The Bras D'or Pensioners Hall for welcoming in this event!!
