In Memoriam - Robert Doucette

Robert Doucette

Remembering a Friend and Colleague

It is with a sad heart that I'm sending this message of kind remembrance of Robert Doucette.

Robert passed in the early morning of August 9th at the Regional Hospital in Sydney, NS.

Robert, as mentioned in his Facebook page, passed from complications of an operation for cancer.

His happy songs will be missed in our office.

Bob, not sure of where your last journey is heading, but a prayer for a fair wind at your back has been sent.

We Hit The Motherlode

These past few weeks I have been busy jigging makerel and whenever fishermen gather in one spot, there are sure to be Tall Tales told. This is one of those stories and it's taken from "Tall Tales & Uder Lies".

Cape Bretoners are very spirited hunting and fishing enthusiasts. They take their sport seriously and any advantage, however slight, is cause for joy and celebration.

This story involves trout fishing anglers who believed they uncovered the Holy Grail one fine Spring day at St. Peter's. Piper MacKenzie was the ringleader and he was returning from visiting his daughter in Port Hawkesbury when he stopped in a little café for a snack.

Sitting across from him were two St. Peter's Hatchery workers and Piper heard one saying, "Hey Charlie, what about that special delivery you have to make today? Are they getting the whole lot?"

The driver answered Charlie, "No, not the whole lot, we have to save half for the folks at Campbell Lake." Piper's ears perked up and he immediately made the connection that they were dumping half their load of fish at one destination and the other half at Campbell's Lake.

Piper jumped up and got to the telephone and called his two partners in crime, Allie "Babba" Cormier and Darrel Peters. He told them to grab their fishing gear and bring an extra rod for him. He said to take an extra cell phone and explained what he had overheard. "I'm gonna follow them and see where they dump the fish. We can switch cars when you get here so they don't become suspicious."

The two workers finished their meal and then headed back to the fish hatchery with Piper following like a character out of Mission Impossible. About an hour and a half later, he got a call on his cell phone from Allie Babba. Piper said to park just outside the Hatchery Road and he would call them to take over surveillance.

After a 45 minute wait, Piper phoned and gave this cryptic message, "Mother Lode moving, don't lose them." The chase was on. Visions of endless trout greedily snapping at their bait filled the anglers with enthusiasm. The hatchery truck made one stop at a convenience store. Piper suggested he take over so the truck wouldn't notice the same car following them.

Ten minutes later, Piper was back on the phone to Allie Babba. "Get ready guys, I think this is it! He's turning up a dirt road." Piper could barely contain his excitement. The road wound around a small hill and suddenly ended at a farm house. Piper stopped the car behind the hatchery truck at a loss what to do. One of the workers asked him how he could help him. Piper was so startled he said, "I was just looking for a place to go fishing."

The worker said, "Me and Charlie can help you. He's just dropping off two kittens here and he has two more for his uncle at Campbell's Lake." Alas, the motherlode did not appear and Allie Babba and Darrel never tire of telling the story at every opportunity they get. One bright side to the story, it cured Piper from eavesdropping.
