Strong Chiropractic Adds Decompression Table

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, Commercial Street, North Sydney, demonstrated the new decompression table recently installed at their Northside office.

The table is a sophisticated computerized table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions.

I'M BOUND FOR GLORY

This story comes from Glace Bay where Joanie, a young girl in a family of 12, yearned for Olympic figure skating glory. The only problem was, she had no skates.

One day, as if in answer to her prayers, she found an old pair of skates in the roadside drain. She ran home to show the treasure to her family. Visions of stardom danced in Joanie's dreams.

The next day Joanie put on her new skates and headed out. She moved gracefully to the left... the fact that she had two left skates helped a lot. She would twirl up and down the streets of #2 like a Russian ballerina. As long as she didn't try to turn right, everything was fine.

However, one day, the blade broke on the old skates and Joanie headed home, dreams shattered, clip clogging up the road like an unshod horse. But fate was kind and that Christmas Joanie got her first pair of new skates. Joanie never made it to the Olympics but at least she could now turn both ways.

Now, each year as Christmas approaches, Joanie gathers up old skates in the neighbourhood and gives them away to less fortunate kids.

BY PAUL POWER

STYX - "Live at the Orleans Arena-Las Vegas" Eagle Vision - Two years ago the band Styx was on the road for their "Soundtrack of Summer Tour" and this Blu-Ray disc features their performance in Las Vegas. Even though lead singer Dennis DeYoung parted ways with the band way back in 1999 this concert is yet another example of how his replacement (Canada's own Lawrence Gowan) more than filled DeYoung's boots; Lawrence picked up the gauntlet and made the role his own. Quite a few years ago I had the pleasure of producing a television interview with Lawrence Gowan, and he was an extremely likeable and down-to-earth man.

Lawrence is joined onstage by Tommy Shaw (vocals/guitar), James "JY" Young (vocals, guitar, keyboards), Todd Sucherman (drums), Ricky Phillips (bass, backing vocals), and Chuck Panozzo (bass guitar). Granted, Chuck, Tommy and JY are the only original Styx members onstage here, but when Gowan signed up with the band he brought his unique and amazing vocal skills, a showmanship that he honed over the years as a successful and critically-acclaimed solo artist, and his mad skills at the keyboards-it was easy to forget that this wasn't the original band.

This concert features Styx tearing the roof off the place with the songs "Too Much Time on My Hands," "Rockin' the Paradise," "Renegade," "Light Up" and "Blue Collar Man (Long Nights)." The musical time trip takes us back to the 1970's as the boys do top-notch renditions of other Styx classics as well, with "Come Sail Away," "Fooling Yourself (The Angry Young Man)" and "Suite: Madame Blue." A special treat is included as former Eagles guitarist Don Felder drops by and bends the strings on (my favourite Styx song) "Blue Collar Man."

I will always admit to loving the original line-up of Styx, and Dennis DeYoung was indeed a founding member, and was responsible for writing most of the band's biggest hits (he also has a great solo career). However, with the passing of original drummer John Panozzo in 1996 and Dennis's departure, the chances of seeing Styx V.1 rocking the paradise once more is impossible, to think otherwise would be a grand illusion. That point leads us back to this performance-that of a band which is still in top-form, rocking and rolling like there's no tomorrow-continuing on with the brand that is STYX. This concert is a snapshot of the best of times.
