NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to Welcome the Canadian Celtic Choir

The Canadian Celtic Choir is a London-based SATB choir of more than fifty voices and was founded in 1996 to sing and promote Celtic choral music and culture in Southwestern Ontario. They have opened for the Men of The Deeps, The Irish Descendants, John McDermott, Lighthouse, and John Tesh.

In March 2007, the Canadian Celtic Choir was the first choral group to be selected from outside of the Ottawa area to sing at a National Ceremony of Remembrance. They sang at the 90th Anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge Service at the National War Memorial in Ottawa (and it was broadcast on national television).

The choir's repertoire features songs primarily from Ireland, Scotland, England, Wales, and the Canadian Maritimes ranging from the traditional (including a few songs sung in Irish, Gaelic and Welsh) to the more contemporary. One of their arrangements is the famous "Sonny's Dream" by the late Ron Hynes. The choir has been performing high quality choral music for over 20 years in the London area.

The group has travelled to Hawaii, Scotland, England and this summer will be touring the Maritimes. On Wednesday, June 28 at 7:00 p.m. St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Sydney Mines will warmly welcome this fantastic group to perform a beautiful concert with special guests Cora Contabula. Some of the familiar songs you will hear on that evening will be Farewell to Nova Scotia, Danny Boy, Fare Thee Well Love and many many more.

Tickets are $20 each and can be purchased at Sexton's Pharmasave in Sydney Mines or at Shoppers Drug Mart in North Sydney or you can reserve yours by calling 902-736-2508.

Centennial Copper Box Time Capsule

It's not Capt. Kidd's treasure or an Oak Island nystery, but this next story is one you may be able to help solve.

On July 1st, 1967, North Sydney celebrated the centennial year by opening a time capsule, which was created and designed by my grandfather, Charles B. Musgrave. My father, Cecil G. Musgrave, Sr. approached North Sydney Mayor and council in 1967 to prepare for the opening of the box. At the time, no one recollected the box but finally at the persistence of my father, it was located in the vault of the Bank of Nova Scotia, North Sydney.

My grandfather placed a number of items and papers in the copper box he handmade. He engraved instructions on the box to be opened on the Town's celebrations of the centennial year. His widow, Mabel I. Musgrave opened the box which contained many items of historic value to the Town. My father, along with my siblings was present for the occasion.

After the box was emptied, the Town officials filled the box with items of historic value to represent the year 1967. My father, Cecil G. Musgrave, Sr. placed a sealed letter with photos inside the box addressed to his infant son, Cecil G. Musgrave, Jr. The box was sealed to be opened in 50 years - which is July 1st, 2017. Because my grandfather created this copper box, the Mayor asked attending Musgrave's to open the box in 2017, namely Cecil Jr.

The copper box was again sealed and placed back in the vault of Bank of Nova Scotia. My father is deceased but before passing he asked we ensure North Sydney is reminded of the copper box and his request my youngest brother open the box. Cecil Musgrave, Jr. is prepared to attend this event along with our siblings.

Since the Town of North Sydney has amalgamated into Cape Breton Regional Municipality, we are writing to the CBRM Council to locate the box and advise us of any ceremony to celebrate opening the box. I await your reply with information on the copper box.

The Cranberries - "Something Else" - The Cranberries are an Irish rock band that formed in Limerick in 1989. The band is made up of lead singer Dolores O'Riordan, guitarist Noel Hogan, bassist Mike Hogan, and drummer Fergal Lawler. What immediately set them apart from their contemporaries was the way that they incorporated alternative rock, indie pop, post-punk and Irish folk music to create a unique blend-which was topped off by Dolores's unique vocal styling. The band released 6 albums previous to this one but decided to take a different approach (for them) for album number 7. It features unplugged and orchestral versions of the band's biggest hits-as well as 3 new songs, recorded with the Irish Chamber Orchestra at the University of Limerick.

The lead single from the album, the acoustic version of the band's 1993 hit "Linger", was released on March 6th and it is wonderful and evocative. That same day the song "Why" was also released; it features a great acoustic guitar intro that ushers in Dolores's achingly rough yet silky vocals on the haunting love song. "Ode To My Family" is another wonderful Cranberries number that gets a nice treatment here when stripped down to its acoustic roots.

Most meaningful for me though is the incredible version of the song "Dreams". The number was used for an Irish tourism campaign and when I flew over the many shades of green fields on "The Emerald Isle" I had this song playing in my headset. Not gonna lie-it was an emotional moment. To be honest, that ad campaign was what made me want to go "across the sea to Ireland" in the first place.

Now before you go thinking that this is elevator music-'Cranberries light' shall we say-the hit song "Zombie" blasts in with all the intensity and passion the original version has.

It's an anti-war protest song about "The Troubles" in Northern Ireland and the music video was shot in Belfast. When one walks through certain parts of Belfast even today you can feel an invisible tension. As of this month, the video has over 530 million views on YouTube, and is one of the 250 most viewed videos on the site. That is powerful beyond belief. The three new songs; "Glory", "Rupture" and "Why" are great numbers-and now part of the illustrious song catalogue of The Cranberries.

By the way, the album cover is a re-enactment of the photo on the band's 1994 album "No Need to Argue" with the four members in the exact same positions. But the backdrop is a darker green-compared to the original's stark white.
