NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

2016 TAX TIPS FROM CH ACCOUNTING & TAX

When should you expect your tax slips?

T4 (Employment): Employers are required to distribute T4s by February 28th, 2017, but some begin much earlier.

T4A (Wage loss replacement benefits, scholarships and pensions): These income slips are required to be distributed by February 28th, 2017.

T4E (Employment Insurance Benefits): Through My Service Canada Account, you can view and print your T4E as early as February 2nd.

All Service Canada slips for taxation year 2016 will be issued by mail between January 30th and February 28th, 2017.

T4 (P)/T4(OAS)(CPP Benefits): Through My Service Canada Account, you can view and print your T4(P) & T4(OAS) as early as February 2nd.

All Service Canada slips for taxation year 2016 will be issued by mail between January 30th and February 28th, 2017.

T3/T5013(Investment Income): These two slips are not required to be mailed out until March 31st, 2017.

T5 (Investment Income): Investment income slips are required to be distributed by February 28th, 2017.

T5007 (Social Assistance and WCB Benefits): These income slips are required to be distributed by February 28th, 2017.

T2202A(Tuition and Education): Through your school's web portal, you may view and print your slip as early as February 2nd, and they are required to be available by February 28th, 2017 at the latest.

RRSP: There is no specific deadline by which financial institutions must issue RRSP receipts. However, most of them recognize that you want them as soon as possible and try to comply. Remember that contributions you make in the first 60 days of 2017 must be recorded on the 2016 tax return, so if you decide not to wait you will need to file an adjustment later. Before you file, check your online banking site for download options.

MOST IMPORTANTLY, the Canada Revenue Agency has now closed the EFILE system for annual maintenance, and therefore no tax return in Canada can be Efiled until it reopens on February 20th, 2017. So take some time and be sure you have all of your slips before you file.

794-4816 - 794-7482 - Members & Guests

I had some vacation time last month so we travelled to Calgary for Christmas; on a messy wintery day there we decided to watch a new series called "Letterkenny"-I fell in love with the series and ended up watching the first 2 seasons in one day-which is not that big of a deal when each season only consists of 6 half-hour episodes. To fill you in, "Letterkenny" is a slightly questionable Canadian television sitcom created by Jared Keeso and Jacob Tierney. It debuted on CraveTV in February of last year and made its way to The Comedy Network. The show features Jared Keeso as Wayne and Nathan Dales as Daryl; two friends living in the small town of Letterkenny, Ontario (a fictional farming community based on Keeso's hometown, Listowel, Ontario). So basically in less than 1 year the web series of shorts went from YouTube to international popularity with people around the world laughing their 'you-know-what off' at some crazy Canucks. Why you might ask? Well, imagine "Trailer Park Boys" combined with "Corner Gas", sprinkled with a dash of Bob and Doug MacKenzie, "South Park" and "Family Guy"-all the while staying 100% Canadian-gotta love it, eh.

What really makes this show stand out is Wayne's philosophizing on life, and his "Wayne-isms"; someone who is a wimp is "10 ply" and a motivational hint would be "pitter patter". These witty and often-times biting sarcastic word whips (all done with that thick Ontario accent that we all know-come on, admit it, you know how they sound, don't ya) are aimed at the hicks, skids, hockey players and born again Christians that roam the streets, farms and bar in Letterkenny. There are too many wonderful supporting cast members to mention here, but let's just say that we all know people like them-and sometimes wish we didn't.

A columnist for The Globe and Mail called the series "refreshing and intoxicating", and "funny, mad, droll, childish, and spiky. Not since "Trailer Park Boys" have we heard the flavourful, salty Canadian vernacular used with such aplomb and abandon"; and also that "Almost all the conversations are raw comedy and utterly plausible as small-town guy talk, not just in Canada but in villages and parishes wherever the grass grows." I couldn't have said it better.

"Letterkenny" had the biggest debut of any series on CraveTV, and nearly one in three subscribers have watched the show. That my friends is a big fat Canuck success story right there. I will admit that the show is not for everyone-but if you like your humour creatively nasty then get on the chuck wagon, open up a brew and enjoy the ride as season 3 starts soon. Pitter patter...let's get at 'er!
